Conditions:

The Tullamore PA & H Association welcomes stall holders to participate in our annual show by selling or demonstrating their products and or services. As there are many stall holders who offer different products, we are aware there may be those who offer similar products. The Tullamore PA&H Association executives and committee members feel it is in the best interest of our show and the public to offer any stall holder the chance to attend our show providing they are not selling products, advertising or offering services that are listed on our banned items list, showmen's guild line list or that the Tullamore PA & H Association deems not suitable.

PLEASE NOTE: Some food products will not be permitted to be sold by stall holders as this is a main source of fund raising for the PA&H. Please contact our show secretary via email if you have a food product for sale before returning this form, and advise if you have the appropriate food handling certification Fees include entry into the Tullamore show for 2 people & 1 night camping accommodation.

If you plan to spend additional time in Tullamore camping fees for the Tullamore showground are
Per Night Powered Site $20. Per Night Unpowered Site $10
